Post Script:

The Sun and Fun Tri County Senior Softball League, Inc. (SFSSI) does not sanction nor does it partner with any member or non-member community when it comes to pre or post season tournaments and thus has no place in the affairs of these communities.

The sfsoftball.net is a purchased domain by the SFSSI and is open to be viewed by the entire internet community. The documents located on this domain are not copyrighted and are available to any entity that is running a tournament or a softball league. The use of playing rules, umpire rules are used at the discretion of the user and is not sanctioned by the SFSSI. Discussion on issues concerning these tournaments is valid in the correct format, which is not the SFSSI, but the community sponsoring the event.

Moving forward, the secretary will include in the agenda two additional categories:

Discussion Topics:

This category will be for use by the President if discussion on league issues by non-board members is necessary, once the official league business is completed. Topics covered under this area will be included in the minutes at the president discretion.

Bulletin Board Items:

Under this topic communities can post events that may include members of the SFSSI, including pre and post tournaments, along with other activities that membered communities may want published. Topics under this section will not be included in the official minutes, but will be attached in a separate email to each community by the secretary. Once again, these topics will not be on the business agenda.

Jim Milligan,
Secretary-Treasurer
