WOW! What an exciting game. The bats were hot with 15 home runs hit between both teams. Great plays were made in the field. Pennbrooke quickly took the lead in the 1st inning 6 to 5. WO regained it in the 2nd inning 10-8. It was tied in the 3rd, 12 all. Pennbrooke lead the 4th 17-14. 5th inning was Pennbrooke 17-15. 6th inning WO 21-20. 7th WO 24 Pennbrooke 22, and it tied in the 8th 31 all. Overtime in the ninth ended with Water Oak winning the battle 35-33. All the players gave their best. Jon Hartman had become a little overexcited toward the end of the game and needed some time out. He came and joined everyone later at the snack shack for some laughs. Every player deserves a round of applause! Game Notes: Fun day with our friends from Water Oak!

Water Oak was a little weak today because they were missing a couple guys, but they never complained and they played very hard!

Really tight game for the entire 8 innings!

Water Oak was led by Mark DuFour with 2 hr and 4 rbi, Dave B with 2 rbi and big Brian with 2 rbi! Macker broke down on the highway, fixed his truck, made it to the game and still played a great game! (He's a great athlete and a better person!)

Pennbrooke was led by an incredible game by TJ Valley! TJ hit his first 2 hrs of the year and was great in the outfield! Baker was 4/4, Floyd was 4/4, Joe and Ross each had 2 hits!

We had a fun game and we had a ball hanging out after! Thanks to our friends and fans from Water Oak! Really fun day! There are no losers when you play a great game with friends!

For Water Oak Pat Dwyer hit 3 homer's and had 6 rbi. Popovich had a HR and 5 rbi. Macker and Tidwell each added a HR and 2 rbi. Dwyer also pitched wonderfully for the visitors.

For PF Floyd Williams was 2 for 2. The rest of the team collected many many gifts for local children in need.
