Well it was a moist day but we got the game in. Del Webb Coach DeNicola is still trying to find the hitting MOJO for his team but has been unsuccessful thus far, but he will find it!! HE BELIEVES!!!!! Both teams had some great defensive plays but for Stonecrest Mark (I don't think I like him very much anymore) Duncan had 3 outstanding diving plays at shortstop to shut down what small rallies Del Webb tried to put together. Stonecrest played well and hit well, as they always do. They were led by Joel Beighley and Greg Popovich with 4 hits and Dave Pistarelli and Tony Nicometo with 3 hits and many guys with 2 hits. Del Webb was led by Brad Feik with the games only Home Run as well as a walk and a hit, Jim Macfarland 2/3 with a triple, Chris Miller 2/2 and Dan Toutant 2/2.

Game Notes:

Another Beautiful Day for softball. Both teams came out swinging with 5 runs in the 1st inning Legacy decided to continue to hit but Del Webb decided to take a few innings off, until they scored 5 in the 6th to close the gap. The bottom of the seventh down by 1 run with 2 outs Del Webb had the fastest player on 1st and the elder stud Kevin Cheeks blasted a shot in the gap and it came down to the play at the plate and Legacy had 2 perfect throws to get the runner out by a half a foot. Great game and Legacy hit well. Legacy put up 26 hits today with Bill Stoltenberg 4-4 and Scott Sanford 4-4 leading the way. Jim Russell 3-4 2B, Steve Tencati 3-4 2B, Tim Mclellan 2-3, Gene Siciliano 2-3, Rob Beall 2-4, Ron Petty 2-4, Pat Casillo 2-4, and Rick Aper with a 3 run homer, for the games only homerun. Del Webb was led by Jim Macfarland with 3 hits (came in batting 1000 for the season), Kevin Cheeks and Bob Hebein with 3 hits a piece and Chris Miller, Jeff Muller, Larry Maffitt, Mitch Abbott and Dan Toutant had 2 hits. Del Webb had incredible defense from Jake Pyne at 1st base and Jeff Muller in Left Field.

Game Notes:

Del Webb started off with a couple of bombs the first inning and Plantation laid a goose egg. Around the third inning Plantation bats started warming up. Del Webb could not get their bats started. Their defense was solid but you just can't put numbers on the board with solid defense. Bob Hebein hit two nice bombs and Brad Felk hit one. Del Webb are a great bunch of guys and we always enjoy the camaraderie each time we play them.
