Game Notes:

It was a wonderful day for softball!

Unfortunately Pennbrooke was missing 9 starters because they were collecting Christmas gifts for a local orphanage.

Water Oak came out hot and took complete advantage of Pennbrooke's charity work! They scored 5 or 6 runs in each of the first 4 innings.

For Water Oak Pat Dwyer hit 3 homer's and had 6 rbi. Popovich had a HR and 5 rbi. Macker and Tidwell each added a HR and 2 rbi. Dwyer also pitched wonderfully for the visitors.

For PF Floyd Williams was 2 for 2. The rest of the team collected many many gifts for local children in need.

We all enjoyed the concession stand following the quick game!

Game Notes:

Clerbrook withstood a comeback charge from Water Oak to come away with a 28-25 win. Water Oak was led by Dan Tremaine 5 for 5, Brian Macker 3 for 5 with 2 HR's, and Jason Hermann 4 for 5. Clerbrook was led by Jessie Allison 5 for 5 with a HR, Frank Pearson 4 for 4 with 2 HR's, Walt Waseleski 2 for 2 with a Grand Slam. Dave Trent and James Bates each had a HR. Water Oak protested the game in the 5th inning when a Clerbrook batter used a bat that was hanging in the dugout. The D5 team hung their bats in the dugout unbeknown to the hitter and he grabbed a green bat from their bag that he thought was the green bat he had been using. He flied out to centerfield and then Water Oak informed the umpire they were protesting the game.
